Key Insights & Business Recommendations

- The Average Order Value (AOV) is 38.31, indicating moderate customer spending per order. This suggests an opportunity to increase revenue through upselling strategies such as combo deals and add-ons.
- Order volume peaks on Friday, Saturday, and Thursday, indicating higher customer demand toward the end of the week and during weekend
- 12 pm , 1 pm , 5 pm , 6 pm , 7 pm Order Volume peaks.

Actions we can take

- Increase staffing & inventory on these days and Times.
- Launch weekend offers or combos
- Run targeted promotions (Thu-Sat)
- Extend delivery capacity during peak days and peak Hours.
- Sales analysis shows that Classic and Supreme categories generate the highest revenue contribution, with Large and Medium sizes being the most preferred among customers.
- Based on quantity sold, the Classic Deluxe Pizza ranks as the best-performing product, whereas the Brie Carre Pizza shows the lowest demand among all items.

Actions we can take

For Best Seller

- Feature it as “Best Seller” on menu
- Put it on homepage / top position (online apps)
- Create combo offers (Classic Deluxe + drink)
- Slightly increase price (carefully) to boost profit

For Worst Seller

- Change recipe / taste
- Adjust pricing
- Rebrand name (important sometimes)
- Offer discounts or combos
- “Try something new” campaigns
- Or Remove it from menu.
